To Whom It May Concern:

Our company has worked with many framing, drywall & ceiling contractors over the past 30 years. Unequivocally, Collette Ceilings & Drywall, Inc. ranks up at the top of the list. They have completed work at several of our projects to include: St. Thomas Aquinas High School, American Heritage School and Mardi Gras Casino.

From the start of the project until completion, their staff is in constant communication with our Project Managers and Superintendents to make sure the jobs are on schedule. The quality of their workmanship is exceptional and is reflected during the Owner/Architect on-site evaluations.

We at Herman Construction Services, Inc. highly recommend Collette Ceilings & Drywall, Inc. and look forward to a long lasting relationship with them on our current and future project.

If you have any questions, please call me.

Sincerely,
