To whom it may concern;

Collette Ceiling and Drywalls has been providing quality acoustical ceilings, framing, both interior and exterior, insulation, sound proofing and finishing for over 9 years.

Our projects are very fast paced, typically with multiple inspections on the same day. Collette continues to rise to the challenge and always maintains a high level of workmanship. They are extremely adaptable and able to facilitate changes in the field with ease. These attributes make Collette Ceilings and Drywall a valuable commodity.

Honesty, integrity and a willing to satisfy even the most challenging consumer is what you will find with the outstanding company.

I wish you only the best.
